

INTERCITY GOLF CONTEST

Philadelphia, New York and Boston Play at Merion Club Oct. 26-27

On the 26th and 27th of October the tri-city matches between teams of twelve players of Boston, New York and Philadelphia for the Lesley Cup will be played on the course of the Merion Club at Haverford. The first day Boston will play against Philadelphia, and the survivors of this match play off with New York.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Golf Association of Philadelphia and the special Advisory Committee of players the following team was selected to represent Philadelphia: R. E. Griscom, H. W. Perrin, A. W. Tillinghast, Simon Carr, H. P. McFarland, W. P. Smith (captain), A. H. Smith, R. E. Hansen, George A. Crump, F. O. Horstman, H. P. Smith, H. L. Wilson. Substitutes—Frazier Harrison, George J. Cook.

Under the amendment to the deed of gift, the captains have the privilege of selecting any ten players from the list of twelve to play in either the morning or afternoon matches, but not substitution of players is to be made after the morning or afternoon match has started.

The Philadelphians have selected Mr. William Poultney Smith as captain of their team, and the New York team have chosen Mr. William J. Travis to be the captain of their team. The Boston captain has not yet been announced.

It is expected that this event will bring together the leading players of the Metropolitan, New England and Philadelphia districts, and will excite great interest on account of the representative players selected to play for the various associations mentioned.
