The first big football games of the season will be played to-day. Princeton will line up against Cornell at the Polo Grounds, Harvard will journey to West Point and face the soldiers' team, the Carlisle Indians will try to take home the scalp of Pennsylvania, while Yale will be called on to show her full strength against Amherst. These are the most interesting games arranged, but there are many others which will provide close and interesting struggles.

The Princeton-Cornell game stands out as the particular feature, as it may have a direct bearing on the so-called college championship. It will provide a rare treat for lovers of the sport in this city, and judging by the advance sale of seats a crowd numbering fully 15,000 persons will be in attendance. The game will be played at the Polo Grounds, and the elevens will face each other at 2:80 o'clock. As it is the only big game that will be played in New York this year, followers of football will not miss the oppor tunity to see what promises to be a pretty strug gle between two well matched teams, and an exposition of the revised rules of football, about which so much has been written and said.

Princeton is a slight favorite in the betting, at edds of 7 to 5, but the followers of the eleven are no whit more confident than the Cornell "rooters." Both teams have been developing the open style of play made possible by the new code, and judging from the games played, are stronger than in several years. Under the most careful methods of training and the most advanced ideas in coaching, both elevens have been brought to a high state of proficiency, and no excuses will be possible to-night, when one must scknowledge defeat, unless, perchance, a tic game should be the result.

An individual comparison of the elevens would indicate that Princeton has a decided advantage, but team work and not individuality must win the game to-day, and Cornell appears to be quite the equal of her opponent in the smoothness and precision with which the plays are run off. Cornell is particularly strong in the back field, as the four men behind the line make up one of the best combinations in the football world to-day, if the games played so far are any criterion. Princeton may win, but victory will hardly be earned without a fight which will be worth going far to see. The Cornell team came down from Ithaca yes-The Cornell team came down from Ithaca yesterday and spent the night at the Murray Hill Hotel. The men are a big, husky lot, and had every appearance of being trained to the hour. The Princeton team will come to New York this morning, and will go direct to the Polo Grounds if present plans are adhered to. The followers of both teams will be on hand in force, and the songs and cheering are sure to be a feature of the game. The Cornell glee club will have seats in the centre of the Cornell section, and will lead the singing. Naturally, the yellow and black of Princeton and the red and, white of Cornell will lend plenty to color to the scene.

Princeton and the red and white of the lend plenty to color to the scene.

Princeton and Cornell have met on the football field fourteen times, and Cornell has won only twice, in 1899 and 1900. The majority of the games, however, have been fairly close, the record being as follows:

West Point usually gives Harvard a hard game, and the meeting to-day promises to be no exception to the rule, although the general feeling is in favor of Harvard winning by a safe margin. Yale should score a more or less easy vistory over Amherst, but Pennsylvania will have a harder time with the Carlisle Indians, who have mastered the new style of game and can be counted on to give a good account of themselves. It will be no surprise, in fact, if Pennsylvania suffers her second defeat of the season, although the eleven has shown marked

LAST WORK FOR TIGERS.

Princeton Oracle Says Cornell Will Be Defeated.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Princeton, Oct. 25.—The Princeton coaches gave the Tigers some finishing touches for the Cornell game behind closed gates this afternoon. The work was light and of short duration. All the coaches were on hand and all the 'varsity men were in the practice. All that could be learned from the coaches was that the squad went through a rapid and satisfactory signal drill, and that all the men are in prime condition. Captain Dillon is in the best of spirits over the Tigers' work and their physical condition, and is confident that Princeton will play a creditable and powerful game to-morrow. When asked to-night it he had any statement to make, he enthusiastically remarked:
"Nothing except that every man is in the very

he had any statement to make, he enthusiastically remarked:

"Nothing except that every man is in the very best of physical condition."

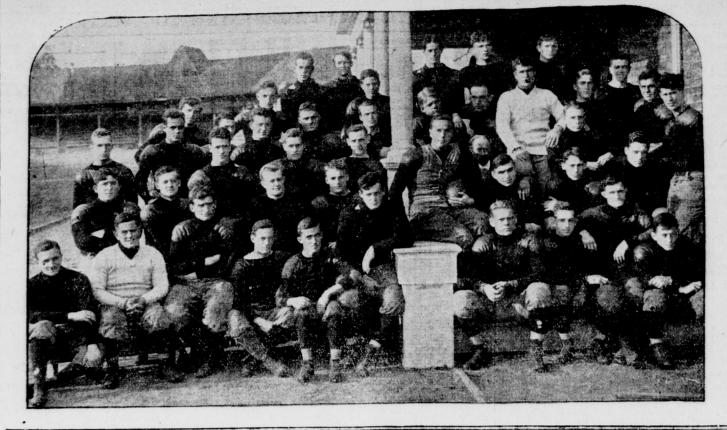

The only position in doubt is at right guard to face Thompson, the big Cornell guard. Martin and Rheinstein are the most probable men. Martin was taken to the 'varsity training table last night, and his improved work of late makes him the probable first man. The advent of Rulon-Miller in the back field has strengthened the team. Daub and Rulon-Miller will alternate at left half, while Harlan and Tibbott will be the other set. Newt Cass has shown such wonderful improvement and speed during the week that he will be used at half in case of substitution.

Throngs of students are leaving on every train to-night, and Princeton promises a big and enthusiastic delegation at to-morrow's game. Every one is confident of a hard struggle, in which Princeton will win.

"Hell Devil" Skillman, the famous Princeton oracle, finally made his prophecy to-night, and said: "Princeton will win 16 to 6."

ST. LAWRENCE, 26; HOBART, 0. Canton, N. Y., Oct. 26.-The St. Lawrence University football team defeated the Hobart College eleven to-day by a score of 26 to 0.

HARVARD ELEVEN OFF.

Starts for West Point with Six Hundred Men Cheering.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 25.—The Harvard 'varsity football squad left Cambridge this afternoon for West Point for its annual game with the soldiers amid the biggest undergraduate demonstration that has ever been given a Harvard team leaving for West Point.

Fully six hundred students marched to the car barns to see the eleven off. Every player on the team was cheered to the echo, and, not content with this, the entire body of students raced up to with this, the entire body of students raced up to Harvard Square and intercepted the car after the players had thought that all farewells were said. The Harvard men had an easy signal practice on Soldiers' Field this afternoon, in which the plays were rehearsed that will be used against the sol-were rehearsed that will be used against the soldiers.

Harvard is planning to do most of her gaining by fast open work, in which the forward pass and the short kick will be used extensively, varied by hard line plunging when the ball gets within striking distance of West Point's goal line. Harvard will present the same team against West Point that scored such a decisive victory last Saturday against Springfield, lining up with Miller, left end; Osborne, left tackle; Burr, left guard; Fraser, centre; Kersberg, right guard; Inches, right tackle; Orr, right end; Newhall, quarterback; Foster, left half; Lockwood, right half, and Wendell, fullback.

SHORT DRILL AT YALE.

How the Eleven Will Line Up in the Amherst Game.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] New Haven, Oct. 28 .- The Yale football .coaches announced to-night that the general shake-up which was made at the beginning of the week would be permanent enough to have it tried in the Amherst game to-morrow. Erwin has been deposed at right guard, Gillis at centre and Congdon nt left end. The line-up against Amherst will be: Left end, Forbes; left tackle, Paige; left guard, Brides; centre, Hockenburger; right guard, Hollo-way; right tackle, Pigelow; right guard, Holloway; right tackle, Bigelow; right end, Alcott; quarterback, T. Jones; left halfback, Knox; right halfback, Morse; fullback, Roome.

Captain Morse and Knox rested to-day, but Alcott returned to right end after a week's absence, and returned to right end after a week's absence, and will play the position to-morrow. The 'varsity had a seven minute scrimmage against the freshmen, in which the forward pass was used almost continually. The regulars could not score, although they rushed the ball to the freshman 15-yard line. Forbes, who has been played at end this week for the first time, has not yet learned the intricacles of the forward pass, and missed the ball several times.

The Amherst team arrived here this afternoon, and practised on the grammar school lot.

GOLF TITLE FOR MRS. BARLOW.

Beats Miss Griscom One Up for Philadelphia Championship.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Philadelphia, Oct. 26.—Before a large gallery Mrs. R. H. Barlow defeated Miss Frances C. Griscom in the final round for the championship of the Women's Golf Association of Philadelphia on the links of the Merion Cricket Club to-day. Mrs. Barlow won by 1 up. Both are members of the home club. In the early stages of the match Mrs. Barlow se cured an advantage and turned for home 1 up. At the twelfth green she stood 2 up. Miss Griscom drove the thirteenth green and won the hole in 3 to 4. The next was hers also, due to weak putting by 4. The next was hers also, due to weak putting by Mrs. Barlow. This made the match all square, but Mrs. Barlow forged to the front again by winning the fifteenth hole in 5 to 6. Both got bunkered going to the sixteenth and a halve resulted, but Miss Griscom squared the match with a 4 at the seventeenth. To the home hole her second shot made the bunker, and that cost her the match, as the stroke lost enabled Mrs. Barlow to win the hole in 6 to 7. Throughout the match Mrs. Barlow drove the longer ball, but this advantage was offset by the other's deadly short game.

SEIZE ENGLISH 'CHASER.

Federal Government Will Inquire as to Value of John M. P.

The exact value of the famous English steeple chaser John M. P. is to be a matter of federal court inquiry, as it is alleged the horse was im ported into this country under a false valuation. Steps were taken yesterday by the United States District Attorney to have the matter investigated which ended in the seizing of the horse by United States Marshal Henkel.

It is alleged that John M. P. was imported on the steamer Minnetonka on July 2 last by one H. D. Cooke, who gave the horse's value as £200. B. B. Galbally, a government Treasury agent, seized the steeplechaser yesterday on the ground that the true value of the horse was £800, the pur chase price paid recently in England.

The horse was being shipped back to England yesterday, and its seizure caused Grant Hugh Brown, who swears he is the owner, to come for ward and furnish a bond of $3,000 to secure its release. This sum indemnified the federal government, and John M. F. was shipped. In the mean time, the value of the horse will be thrashed out here, and Mr. Brown may be called on to pay an additional fee for the importation, with a penalty added.

John M. P. raced in this country under the colors of the Brownleigh Park Stable, owned by Grant Hugh Brown. He won two races at the Sheepshead Bay fall meeting, but was badly beaten in the Champion Steeplechase at Belmont Park last Saturder. AUTO-COURSE MEETING POSTPONED.

Private Highway May Be Built Between Floral Park and Riverhead.

The meeting of the plan and scope committee of the proposed automobile speedway on Long Island which was to have been held yesterday was post-poned, as William K. Vanderbilt, jr., the chairman, was on a hunting trip in New Brunswick. The meeting will be held on Monday.

It is said by persons usually well informed that the route in contemplation for the automobile speedway is a sixty mile stretch between Floral Park and Riverhead.

MANY AUTOMOBILE DEALERS.

An interesting compilation has just been made by the agency department of the Association of Licensed Automobile Manufacturers for the benefit of its members. In 1905 the association had a list showing the names of 1,250 dealers in the United States handling all makes and grades of cars. The present list shows a total of 1,545 names, making an increase of nearly 24 per cent. Of these 1.657 an increase of nearly 24 per cent. Of these 1.057 are dealers handling cars licensed under the Selden patent, thirty-four handling electric and steamers exclusively.

MELVIN SHEPPARD TO RUN HERE.

Melvin Sheppard has accepted the invitation of the Letter Carriers' Association to run in a two-mile scratch race at their games at the 9th Regiment Armory on the night of November 17.
Against Sheppard will be such good distance runners as George V. Bonhag, two-mile indoor champion of the United States; Billy Frank, of Marathon fame; Eddle Carr and Bart Freeman, of the Xavier Athletic Club, and William Nelson, of the Pastime Athletic Club.

LIVELY LAWN TENNIS.

Darkness Saves the National Champion from Defeat.

Only the gathering darkness saved Miss Helen Homans, the national champion, from defeat yes-terday in the handicap singles tournament on the courts of the West Side Lawn Tennis Club, 117th street and Amsterdam avenue. She had begun the contest in the final round, after playing through a hard match in the semi-final round. The heavy handicap mark of minus 40 told against Miss Homans from the beginning of the final competition, as her opponent, Miss Grinnell, played from plus

All the dashing brilliancy which is characteristic of the champion's play was put into the game from the opening service, but from her side of the net Miss Grinnell swung her racquet as steadily and played the ball as accurately. It was the care and sureness which Miss Grinnell put into her shots which, coupled with her advantage in the handicap, caused her to hold a commanding lead and win the first set at 6—4. She also led in the second set at 5—3, but the plucky uphill playing of Miss Homans finelly brought the score to deuce at 6—all, when it was postponed until to-day, on account of In the semi-final match Miss Homans defeated Miss Wildey, 6-4, 7-5. She cut the ball across the court at angles which made it impossible for Miss Wildey to return, and her smashing was swift and

The Columbia sophomores easily defeated the freshmen in the annual fall track meet, which was held on SouthField yesterday afternoon. WES A CHASER TO RYE. BOSTON

MILLER OUTRIDES FINN. BEAT QUAKERS EASILY

Four Favorites and a Second Choice New York Team Will Meet Victors Win at Jamaica Track.

The weather made amends in part for the somewhat ordinary programme at Jamaica yeserday, and a good sized crowd was at the track. Four favorites and a well played second choice won, and Miller handled his usual two winners, so that those who followed form closely went home well content with the day's sport, which in other respects was hardly up to the standard.

Belmere, Ed Ball and Delphie declined the issue in the Garden City Stakes, a selling affair for three-year-olds and upward, at one mile and a sixteenth, which left only Wes and Rye to face the starter. Neither lacked for followers, but the Rye money was so late in showing in the ring that his price drifted back to 9 to 10 after opening at 7 to 10. Just at the end, however, he was backed with the utmost confidence, so that the price against Wes, which had been at even money during most of the speculation. lengthened to 13 to 10. Rye won in a big gallop, but not until his followers had had some anxious moments in the run up the backstretch and around the turn, when Wes was racing along two or three-lengths in front, and apparently running the easier of the two. When straightened out for home Wes began to tire, so that Rye quickly took command and came away, to win as he pleased. It was a clear case of Miller outgeneralling Finn.

Sister Frances was a prohibitive favorite at 1 to 3 to beat Watergrass and Nellie Burn in the second race, a handicap at one mile and a sixteenth, and again the favorite followers who had accepted the short price passed through some anxious moments. Knapp waited so long with Sister Frances that it began to look as if she could never get up; but Watergrase which was running out of her distance, hung badly through the last furlong, in spite of Miller's best efforts to keep her going, so that Sister Frances wore her down and at the end was going away under pressure, to win by three parts of a length. Nellie Burn was outclassed, although she showed speed for six furlongs.

Lotus made a show of her field in the first race, and, making the running to suit herself. won hard held by five or six lengths from Bertha E. and Quadrille, both of which were heavily played. Miller was unable to make Mintia stay, and finished outside the money.

Johnstown, a cast-off from the Sanford stable was the medium of a good sized killing in the third race, which called for non-winners this year. He was backed from 6 to 1 to 3 to 1, so that Penrhyn, which opened favorite at even money, drifted back to 2 to 1. C. Ross saved ground with Johnstown rounding the paddock turn, and placed him cleverly behind the pace in the run up the backstretch. When Penrhyn began to tire, turning for home, Johnstown took command and won easily enough by three lengths. Penrhyn stopped so fast that Chal-fonte had little trouble in earning the place. Sally Preston, the split choice with Belle of Iroquois, in the fifth race, might have won if

Miller had not been so anxious to get to the front after breaking in the rear division and rushed her up so fast. Further than that, Dolly Dollars, the early pacemaker, carried Sally Preston so wide at the home turn that Clara Huron and Lady Vincent were able to save two or three lengths by coming through on the rail. This advantage counted in their favor, and Clara Huron won in a drive by two lengths, with Lady Vincent the carre distance before Sally Preston. Vincent the same distance before Sally Preston. Belle of Iroquois was off badly and could never Wincent the same distance before Sally Preston. Belle of Iroquois was off badly and could never improve her position.

Molesey was the best horse at the weights in the last race, a handicap for three-year-olds, at five and a half furlongs, but he was slow to begin, had to run all around his field, and just failed to get up to beat Waterbury, which had made all the running. The finish was so close that those who had wagered on Waterbury watched for the numbers to go up with no litte anxiety. Molesey, on which one of the biggest killings of the meeting had been made on Thursday, was again played with confidence, and backed from 10 to 1 to 3 to 1. While the horses were at the post 2 to 1 was hard to find, and he was the actual favorite in many of the books. Arimo was knocked out of the race just after the start, and forced back to last place. He made up a lot of ground, and the accident undoubtedly cost him part of the purse.

The Pinkertons effectually shut off the view from the so-called poolroom tower yesterday by erecting canvas screens on huge poles. The next move in the war between the racetracks and the poolroom men will be watched with interest.

BOLD GERMAN THIEF ARRESTED.

Berlin, Oct. 26 .- The pretended captain of Grenadiers of the Guard, who on October 16 produced a forged order authorizing him to take command of a detachment of twelve men whom he met on a street in this city and went to Coepenick, a small town near here, where he arrested the burgomaster and the treasurer and stole $1,000, turns out to have been a shoemaker of Tilsit, named William Voigt. He was arrested this morning by four commissaries of po-lice. Voigt has served five terms in prison, fin-ishing a fifteen years' sentence in February. He is nearly sixty years old.

for the Lesley Cup. [By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Philadelphia, Oct. 26.—The Massachusetts Golf

Association will meet the Metropolitan Golf Association to-morrow for possession of the Lesley Cup. In the first section of the tri-city match over the links of the Merion Cricket Club to-day. the Bay State team defeated the Golf Association of Philadelphia, 9 points to 4. The visitors made victory almost certain when they won seven of the ten single matches in the morning. They added to their score by taking two of the five four ball matches in the afternoon. The result was a shock to the Philadelphians, who had hoped for victory over a course with which they were so familiar. The Boston players, however, were on their game, and took to the strange course like ducks to water. H. H. Wilder, a Harvard student, made the best score of the day. He went out in 36 and home in 43 for and 6 to play. It was close to par golf of Wilder Hugo R. Johnstone, the Massachusetts captain, led off for his team, playing against Rodney E. Griscom, a former Philadelphia champion. They kept together all the way, and it was a case of all square on the home green. The far driving ing at about an 82 gait, W. C. Chick, who has been doing such good work this fall on the courses about Boston, had the satisfaction of defeating Howard W. Perrin, the Philadelphia title holder, by 4 up and 3 to play. The Bostonian went out in 40, where he stood 2 up. He was only 1 up at the twelfth, but settled matters by winning the next three holes in par

Johnstone won at the extra hole. They were scor.

It remained for W. P. Smith, the Philadelphia captain, to bring in the first point for the home team. He was opposed by J. G. Thorp, whom he defeated by 2 up and 1 to play. Early in the match defeated by 2 up and 1 to play. Early in the match Smith stood 2 up, but the Boston veteran, by winning the eighth and ninth holes, managed to turn for home all square. Both went out in 39. Smith won the thirteenth hole in 2.

Dr. Simon Carr scored a point for Philadelphia by defeating P. W. Whittemore, I up. The latter went out in 39, and was I up at the turn. Dr. Carr then came back in 39, a trifle too fast for the former Harvard baseball player.

The most protracted match was the one between G. H. Crocker and H. B. McFarland, a former Philadelphia champion. Although fifty-eight years old, Crocker is as active as a boy. The Philadelphia contingent, however, was dismayed when they saw the contest carried to the home green, where the pair finished all even. Crocker then won on the twentieth green, making fours at the two extra holes.

on the twentleth green, making fours at the two extra holes.

A. W. Tillinghast raised the hopes of the Philadelphians by defeating Richard Kimbali, the Boston schoolboy, 4 up and 3 to play. Tillinghast went out in 49, where he stood 3 up, and thereafter always had the match well in hand.

Percival Gilbert, of Boston, went out in 3 against R. C. Hansen, and won decisively by 7 up and 6 to play. Templeton Briggs, of Boston, wen another point for his side by finishing 3 up on A. H. Smith. In the last match T. G. Stevenson, of Boston, defeated F. Oden Horstman, I up. They were all square at the turn, and again at the twelfth green. The scores of the morning match follow:

The best ball returned in the fourball matches was by the Chick-Gilbert combination against Griscom and Hugh Wilson. Griscom began auspiciously for his side by holing a mashle shot for a 3 at the first. Both sides kept well together, going out in 37, where they were all square. Coming home the Boston pair maintained the same pace, making awother 37, good enough to win by 2 up and 1 to play. The best ball card was: Chick and Gilbert:

MORE DISCORD AT ST. JOHN'S. St. John's, N. F., Oct. 26 .- A new trouble has arisen in the fisheries question, because American fishermen who have just arrived at Bay of Islands refuse to be bound by the compact entered into by their countrymen who preceded them to Newfoundland waters, and the colonial fisherfolk, under the terms of which the Amerinsheriols, under the terms of which the Americans agreed not to use purse seines and the colonials contracted not to fish at night. Captain Anstruther, of the British cruiser Brilliant, and A. B. The Landlords' Protective Association, of Youkers, an organization including many property owners, has sent a recommendation to the State Railroad Commission that trolley cars on lines where there is more than a 7 per cent grade shall where there is more than a f per cent grace and have a crew of three men, a motorman, a conductor to collect fares and another conductor to stand on the rear platform to work emergency brakes and signal the starting and stopping of the cars. This is the result of the MoLean avanue disaster, and is intended to do away with all such accidents in the future.
