

QUAKER GOLFERS WIN

Philadelphians Defeat Massachusetts Team and Will Play New Yorkers for Trophy

BROOKLINE, Mass., Oct. 25.—The golfing team from Philadelphia, by playing the Massachusetts team to a tie in the forenoon and winning four out of five matches in the foursome play in the afternoon, won the right today at the country club of meeting the Metropolitan team for the Lesley intercity cup tomorrow.

The play throughout the day was very close, and two matches in the morning and one in the afternoon went to extra holes for decisions.

In the afternoon foursome the contest between McFarland and Carr, of Philadelphia, and Anderson and Whittemore, of Massachusetts, was the feature, and although the local team played the course in 76, a record for the old fashioned two-ball foursome, their opponents tied the score on the eighteenth green and won the nineteenth and the match.

The result of the play was as follows:
