NEW YORK GOLFERS WIN.

Defeat Boston Team for Lesley Cup by Only One Point.

For the fourth successive time the New York golfers came out as victors in the two-day tri-city match for the Lesley Cup between Boston, Philadelphia, and metropolitan players at the local links to-day by the close score of 8 to 7.

The Massachusetts experts got the better of the Philadelphians yesterday in the single matches and two-ball foursomes, but it was nip and tuck between the New Englanders and local men to-day, the visitors having the advantage in the afternoon two-ball foursome play, after being beaten in the morning match play round by 7 points to 3.

Following are the scores of the single matches and two-ball foursomes:

INDIVIDUAL PLAYERS.

NEW YORK.		BOSTON.
