

LESLIE CUP GOLF TO-DAY.

Walter Travis Captain of Team That Will Play at Myopia.

HAMILTON, Mass., Sept. 20.—All the golfers of the Massachusetts, Metropolitan, and Philadelphia Associations, who are to compete at the Myopia Hunt Club to-morrow in the Leslie Cup matches arrived here to-day and soon took advantage of the opportunities for practice. The Massachusetts players showed up to good advantage in playing the famous links, but scores preceding a championship are no indication of what may develop twenty-four hours later. The make-up of the three teams announced officially by R. R. Freeman, Secretary of the Massachusetts Association, is as follows:

Massachusetts—H. H. Wilder, (Captain,) J. G. Anderson, P. W. Whittemore, A. G. Lockwood, P. Gilbert, F. C. Davidson, W. R. Tuckerman, T. M. Claflin, T. G. Stevenson, H. Schmidt, Rodney W. Brown, and T. R. Fuller.

Pennsylvania—W. C. Fownes, Jr., National amateur champion and Captain of the team; Wirt L. Thompson, W. G. Pfell, E. M. Byers, A. G. Kay, J. H. Childs, H. W. Perrin, W. P. Smith, F. W. Kemble, H. M. Clements, and W. S. Sargent.

Metropolitan Team—Walter J. Travis, (Captain,) Fred Herreshoff, F. S. Douglas, Archie M. Reid, John M. Ward, Max Behr, S. J. Graham, J. P. Knapp, Oswald Kirby, J. F. Shanley, Marshall Whitlatch, and G. P. Tiffany.

Massachusetts will play Pennsylvania to-morrow, and the winning team meets the Metropolitan players for the trophy on Saturday. There will be ten singles matches in the forenoon and five four-somes in the afternoon of each day.

Woman Champion on Cranford Links.

The final match of the ladies' championship of the Cranford Golf Club was played on Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. C. J. S. Fraser won from Mrs. T. S. Stevens by 5 up and 3 to play. Mrs. Fraser has held the championship for the past four years.

Women in Tennis Championship.

Miss Elizabeth H. Moore, the former National champion and holder of other titles, announced last night that the women's metropolitan lawn tennis championship tournament would be held next week on the dirt courts of the West Side Tennis Club, 236th Street and Review Place. Three events will be decided, including women's singles and doubles and mixed doubles. Miss Louise E. Hammond, the present holder of the championship, and Miss Elsie Little are the other members of the committee in charge of the tournament. They are now playing in the Longwood meeting at Boston and have arranged for the leading performers in that tournament to return with them to this city. Miss Eleanor Sears, the former National champion; Miss Lois Moyes, the Canadian champion, and others will compete, while the list in this city will bring into the competitions Mrs. Frederick Schmitz, National indoor champion; Miss Marie Wagner, Miss Clara Kuttroff, Mrs. S. F. Weaver, and all of the leading women engaged actively in the sport. Altogether the field promises to be the most important that has been assembled this season on the courts of this city. The entry list will close next Monday night with Miss Elizabeth H. Moore of 610 West 113th Street, New York City.
