

OUIMET LOSES AT EIGHTEENTH HOLE

Worthington of Philadelphia Defeats Open Golf Champion—

Massachusetts Wins Cup.

BROOKLINE, Mass., Sept. 27. — Defeat overtook Francis Ouimet, the open golf champion of just a week, in the singles for the Lesley Cup to-day, his conqueror, by a score of 1 up for the eighteen holes, being R. S. Worthington of Shawnee, Penn., and leader of the Philadelphia team. The Massachusetts players, however, recaptured the trophy by a total score of 12 to 3.

Ouimet showed unmistakable signs of being overgolfed, for his drives and second shots found traps continually, while his putting was unusually weak. His score of 87 for the eighteen holes was the poorest in weeks on the Country Club course.

Worthington was not much better, with an 84, and many holes were captured in a couple of strokes worse than bogey. Worthington is champion of his home club and has won the invitation tournaments there for the last three years. He never played on a Philadelphia team before to-day, nor has he ever contested in a sectional or national event.

After clearing up all five matches in the foursome play in the morning, the Massachusetts players clinched the cup by taking seven of the ten singles in the afternoon. The three matches won by the visitors were all decided on the home green. The summary:

MARSTON BEATS CHEESEMAN

Interscholastic Golfer Wins Invitation Tournament at Essex County.

Max R. Marston, the interscholastic golf champion, won the chief cup in the invitation tournament of the Essex County Country Club yesterday by defeating J. E. Cheeseman, of the home organization, by 7 up and 6 to play in the thirty-six-hole final round. This is the first important trophy Marston has won this year outside of his interscholastic achievement.

It looked bad for the Baltusrol young man when the contest was in its early stages, for he had developed a streak of indifferent putting which proved costly at times. They were level at the turn, and it was soon after that Marston had the match well in hand. He was five up at the seventeenth, but Cheeseman won the last, and left Marston's margin only four.

Twice Marston's putting cost him holes in the afternoon round, but he succeeded in getting down a couple of long ones to make up for it, notably at the fifth, where he ran in one of twenty feet for a two and at the ninth where he performed similarly for a fine three. Final rounds in all the other divisions were also run off, everything but the beaten eights and the handicap being at thirty-six holes. The summary:

First Sixteen.—Final Round—Maxwell R. Marston, Baltusrol, beat J. E. Cheeseman, Essex County, 7 up and 6 to play.
 Beaten Eight, First Sixteen.—Final Round—C. S. Kellogg, Essex County, beat H. H. Bottome, Essex County, 9 up and 8 to play.
 Second Sixteen.—Final Round—Edwin W. Wild, Cranford, beat C. E. Van Vleck, Jr., Baltusrol, 2 up.
 Beaten Eight, Second Sixteen.—Final Round—Percy R. Pyne, 2d, Morris County, beat F. N. Cowperthwaite, Baltusrol, 5 up and 4 to play.
 Third Sixteen.—Final Round—R. D. Reynolds, Essex County, beat Daniel Adams, Jr., Baltusrol, 5 up and 4 to play.
 Beaten Eight, Third Sixteen.—Final Round—Paul E. Heller, Forest Hill, beat A. G. Hoffman, Essex County, 2 up and 1 to play.
 Fourth Sixteen.—Final Round—A. H. Gussman, Forest Hill, beat E. V. Hartford, Essex County, 8 up and 7 to play.
 Beaten Eight, Fourth Sixteen.—Final Round—E. B. Grier, Elizabeth, beat W. D. Osborne, Essex County, 5 up and 4 to play.
