

NEW YORK GOLFERS TAKE LESLEY CUP

Metropolitan Team Easy Winners in Intercity Match at Merion Cricket Club.

Special to The New York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 2.—There was no holding the Metropolitan team today in the final golf match of the intercity series for the Lesley Cup on the links of the Merion Cricket Club. Gaining an early lead in the morning foursomes, the visiting combination defeated Pennsylvania 12 to 3.

A glance back over the records shows that New York has held the upper hand in these affairs no less than eight times during the last eleven years. Massachusetts has held the cup twice, while Pennsylvania gained its only success at Huntington Valley three years ago.

When it was seen that Travers and Kirkby had been paired together in the foursomes, the gallery promptly swung in behind this couple, which was opposed to W. C. Fownes, Jr., and Davidson Herron, the Princeton student. Although they started indifferently the M. G. A. pair gradually settled to its work, but even so, the Pittsburgh men managed to carry the match to the seventeenth green, where Travers and Kirkby got a 3. Travers was a trifle off in direction with his irons, while Kirkby failed to drive up to his usual standard. Had they played the bye hole the card would have totaled more than 80.

Marston and Gardiner White had to go to the nineteenth hole to dispose of Howard W. Perrin and Hugh Willoughby, while Webb and A. F. Kammer defeated R. S. Worthington and John Stearns by 4 and 3. George Ormiston and C. J. Crookston were the only Pennsylvanians to score.

Travers, at No. 1, was opposed to Fownes, while Kirkby took on E. M. Byers. Although he lost the first hole, Travers went out in 39 and turned for home 3 up. A fine 3 at the eleventh increased the open champion's advantage to 4 up, but he missed his second shot at the twelfth, losing there, and taking 3 putts on the fifteenth, dropped that hole. Fownes had to jump a stymie to halve the sixteenth in 5, and when they halved the next in 3 the match ended. A 4 at the home hole would have given the champion a 77.

Marston was in fine fettle against Worthington, the first named, with the exception of one hole, where he had a 7, going along in par figures. After turning for home 4 up, the New Jersey champion won by 7 and 5. John Anderson, after being 3 down, with seven holes to play to Herron, finally won at the nineteenth. This match was well played, Anderson getting a 75 and his opponent a stroke better. Anderson won the extra hole in 4. Phil Carter, the metropolitan junior champion from Nassau, finally defeated Ormiston in a match carried to the twentieth hole. The summaries:

Foursomes.—Metropolitan—J. D. Travers and Oswald Kirkby, 1; J. G. Anderson and Philip Carter, 1; Max Marston and G. W. White, 1; A. F. Kammer and Roy Webb, 1; Dwight Partridge and C. L. Watkins, 0. Total—4. Pennsylvania—W. C. Fownes, Jr., and Davidson Herron, 0; E. M. Byers and C. B. Buxton, 0; H. W. Perrin and Hugh Willoughby, 0; R. S. Worthington and John N. Stearns, 0; J. B. Crookston and George Ormiston, 1. Total—1.

Match play summary follows: Travers and Kirkby beat Fownes and Herron, 2 up and 1 to play; Anderson and Carter beat Byers and Buxton, 2 up and 1 to play; Marston and White beat Perrin and Willoughby, 1 up, (19 holes;) Kammer and Webb beat Worthington and Stearns, 4 up and 3 to play; Crookston and Ormiston beat Partridge and Watkins, 1 up.

Singles.—Metropolitan—J. D. Travers, 1; Oswald Kirkby, 1; M. R. Marston, 1; J. G. Anderson, 1; Philip Carter, 1; G. W. White, 0; Roy Webb, 1; A. K. Kammer, 1; Archie Reed, 0; Dwight Partridge, 1. Total, 8.

Pennsylvania—W. C. Fownes, Jr., 0; E. M. Byers, 0; R. S. Worthington, 0; D. Herron, 0; George Ormiston, 0; J. N. Stearns, 1; C. B. Buxton, 0; H. W. Perrin, 0; O. Willoughby, 1; J. C. Crookston, 0. Total, 2.

Match play summary follows: Marston beat Worthington, 7 up and 5 to play; Anderson beat Herron, 1 up, (19 holes;) Kammer beat Perrin, 2 up and 1 to play; Partridge beat Crookston, 1 up; Carter beat Ormiston, 1 up, (20 holes;) Kirkby beat Byers, 1 up; Willoughby beat Reed, 4 up and 3 to play; Webb beat Buxton, 1 up; Travers beat Fownes, 2 up and 1 to play; Stearns beat White, 1 up.

The New York Times

Published: October 3, 1915

Copyright © The New York Times