WILLIAMS BEATS RICHARDS

Former Titleholder Exhibits All His Old Wizardry—Le Roy's Defeat of Griffin a Surprise.

Rain tried its best to hold up the national tennis championship at Forest Hills yesterday, but a late start forced the elements and by sundown the entire second round of the all-coners' singles was completed, with the veterans and juniors' championship events under way. In spite of discouraging weather conditions all week the turf courts of the West Side Club maintained their almost perfect surface, while every detail of management continued to be carried out with the scrupulous care that has consistently marked the work of the Tournament Committee.

Among the thirty-two players who survived yesterday's competition were National Champion Robert Lindley Murray, who disposed of Dean Matthey in straight sets, three ex-champions, R. N. Williams, M. J. Johnston, and Maurice McLoughlin; Ichhya Kumagai, William T. Tilden, 2d, and the Australians, Norman Brookes and R. V. Thomas. Gerald L. Patterson also remaining in the draw through the default of his team mate, Randolph Lycett.

The only upset of the day came late in the afternoon when Maurice McLoughlin triumphed over Clarence J. Griffin of California in five sets, scoring 4-6, 2-6, 6-2, 6-0, 6-4.

Murray in Rare Form. The national title-holder was in rare form when he took the court against Dean Matthey, and consistently fine play enabled him to carry the match to a score of 10-8, after losing the first two, 6-2 and 6-4. Murray rallied again, in addition to his old serving and volleying game, the aggressive and steady ground strokes which carried him to victory.

Williams' Sensational Victory. Leroy's sensational victory over Griffin was staged on an outside court and was one of the last matches of the day to be completed. The former champion looked like an easy winner when he romped through the first two sets at 6-4 and 6-2, outguessing the Columbia veteran in his placements and control of the ball.

Brookes is Unworried. Norman Brookes was not worried by the 25th-ranked team of young tennis in his first two sets, winning both without the loss of a game. But in the third the Detroit junior steadied down and had a lead of 4-2 before the Good volleys, however, saved the situation for the veteran, and he ran four games in the next set.

QUAKERS LOOK DANGEROUS.

Philadelphia Promises Strong Golfers for Leasley Cup Matches.

One significant feature of the national amateur golf championship held recently at the Oakmont links in Pittsburgh was the participation of the Quakers.

When Howard Perrin was elected to the Presidency of the U. S. G. A. in 1916 he admitted the weakness of his home section in prominent players at that time, but he spoke enthusiastically of the younger element which he had developed, and he predicted the rise to prominence of the youngsters who have lately rushed to the fore.

SHOT POISONS WATER FOWL Government Tests Show Mortality Due to Eating Pellets.

Wild ducks and other waterfowl sometimes die from lead poisoning resulting from swallowing stray shot which they pick up from the mud about shooting grounds.
