

NOTED GOLFERS PLAY AT MERION TODAY

The two-day invitation golf tournament of the Merion Cricket Club will begin this morning with prominent golfers from Philadelphia, New York and Boston as the participants. It will be a 72-hole medal play event and there will be a prize for the player returning the best gross score and the player having the second best total. On Thursday there will be prizes for the lowest gross scores for 18 and 36 holes, while there will be special prizes for members and former members of the Lesley Cup team; one for the lowest gross, another for the lowest net for 18 holes and a third prize for the lowest net score for 36 holes.

Francis Quinnet, Jesse Gullford and other members of the Massachusetts team as well as a number of prominent players from New York will be here in time to play tomorrow. Ray and Vardon played Ogimot and Guilford yesterday at the Country Club of Brookline and nearly all of the Massachusetts delegation stayed over to see the match.

William C. Fownes, Jr., former national champion, has definitely selected the Lesley Cup team. It is as follows: Davidson Herron, William C. Fownes, Jr., Max Marston, J. Wood Platt, George W. Hoffer, Norman H. Maxwell, E. M. Ryers, Walter H. Reynolds, Francis W. Kemble, Meredith M. Jack, L. M. Washburn and George Ormiston. Of these Herron, Fownes and Ryers are former national champions and with Ormiston make up the Pittsburgh representatives. The other players are from this city.

The Lesley Cup matches will begin on Friday when the Massachusetts team plays the Metropolitan team. On Saturday the winner will meet the Pennsylvania team which won the championship last year.
