

ART YATES, WITH 150, WINS MEDAL ROUND

Rochester Golfer Leads Big Field in North and South Tourney at Pinehurst

A PINEHURST, N. C., April 4. ARTHUR YATES, of Rochester, will soon have a necklace of gold medals, for he was the medalist for the third consecutive tournament in Pinehurst when he led the field in the 36-hole qualifying round of the North and South golf amateur championship today with rounds of 74, 76—150.

This placed him just one shot ahead of E. L. Scofield, of Pinehurst, who was 74, 77—151.

Yates was running around the clubhouse at noon complaining because his two favorite clubs, a putter and mashie niblick, were missing from his bag when he went to his locker a few minutes before he was scheduled to start. The clubs could not be found, and Yates made some hurried purchases in the shop. He carried along five putters and smashed three of these on the first few holes. Some said he hit them.

At the fifth hole, after starting with three fives, a four and a seven, Yates was mad enough to quit, and was going to pick up his ball, but P. S. MacLaughlin, of New York, his partner, quieted Yates' nerves with some sound advice and they continued. By holding a long putt on the ninth Yates got out in 11, but he swung over the home-bound circuit in 35 strokes, and his total of 150 added the big gold qualifying medal to his trophies.

Donald Herring, former Princeton half-back, reported taking 24 putts on the first nine holes, missing five on one hole. Others took nearly as many.

W. C. Fownes, Jr., Oakmont, former national amateur champion; A. L. Walker, Jr., Richmond County; Mike Thomas, Nashville, one of the Nation's foremost left-handed players; Donald Parson, the Tin Whistle champion, and F. C. Newton, former captain of the Massachusetts Lesley Cup team, all qualified, as did Eddie Lowery, who called for Francis Ouimet at Brookline in 1913 when Ouimet won the open championship from Vardon.

Ray H. Kasawaki, the amateur champion of Japan, after taking 180 yesterday, failed to return a card today.
