ANSWER TO THE LAST PUZZLE: SHE EEL ARK

FOR THE GOLFER

Boston, Aug. 19.—(AP)—The Massachusetts Golf Association today indicated its determination not to bow to the United States Golf Association in the impending war over professionalism. The state group made public a statement by E. E. Litchfield, a former president of the M. G. A., in which he upheld the stand of that body.

The storm clouds that gathered when the M. G. A. announced its intention to pay expenses of its representatives in the forthcoming Litchfield Cup matches and interstate competition, Herbert Jacques, New England representative of the U. S. G. A., immediately issued a warning that in this event, the players would lose their amateur standing.

Litchfield today said "It's perfectly ridiculous to pay the Walker cup team expenses and not those of the Litchfield cup team. There should be one law for both. I believe the reason for the move is the fear that matters will get out of control of the U. S. G. A."

Jesper Park, Alta., Aug. 19.—(AP)—More than 100 golfers from Canada and the United States were entered in the Canadian amateur championship starting today.

C. Ross Somerville of London, Ont., is the defending champion. The qualifying round was at 36 holes with match play awaiting the survivors. At the same time teams from each of the provinces except the Maritimes were to decide the Inter-Provincial team championship.

Now is the time to look for diseases in the perennials of the flower garden and to guard against their reappearance next year.

SLEEVELESS SLIP-ON BLOUSE WITH INVERTED BOX-PLEATED SKIRT.

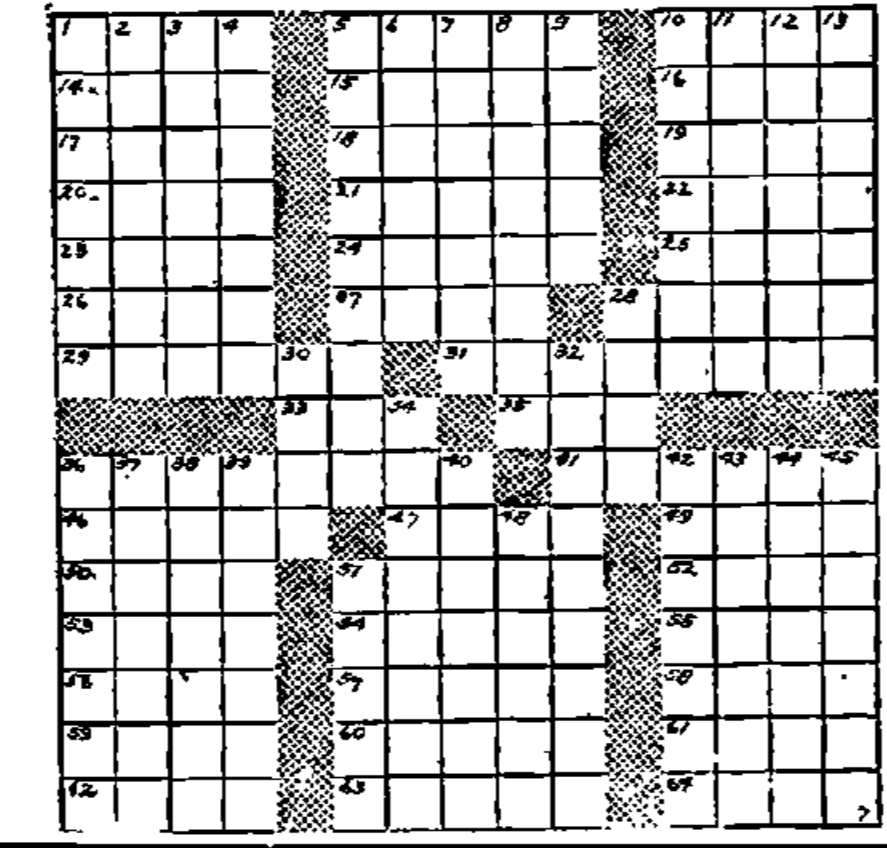

By Helen Worden. Copyright Press Publishing Company (New York World) 1929. Gay stripes band the sleeveless slip-on blouse worn by Mrs. Edmund S. Twining at Southampton. Like the edge of the jumper, the armholes and V-shaped neck are bordered in the same bright colors. With the blouse Mrs. Twining wears an inverted box-pleated skirt. The pleats are stitched to the hips and allowed to flare in sunburst fashion to the hemline.

semble. Of outstanding importance are the lisle hose which are worn with the ballet beach sandals. Silk stockings should never be selected for sports wear, or worn with tweed country togs. Of equal patterned importance is her gayly patterned lisle informal beach bag that corresponds appropriately with the lisle stockings. There is much in wearing the right clothes at the right time. A bright head kerchief tops off the attractive ensemble. Mrs. Edmund Twing is one of the popular members of the younger set to express much interest in the Hampton Players.
