Jess's Flawless Golf Woodmere Uses Gains Lesley Cup Lead Passes to Beat For Metropolitan Team Friends, 20 to 0

(Staff Correspondent of the Eagle)

Clementon, N. J., Oct. 4-This Pine Valley golf course about which you have heard so much can be tamed. Yes, but only once in a long, long time. Jess Sweetser did it yesterday in aiding pobly to build up the Metropolitan District's fine total of 321/2 points, which gave that section its tage, Woodmere Academy pried the six-point lead on the Pennsylvania golfers in the annual bat- lid off its football campaign yestertle for the Lesley Cup.

Two Jockeys Furnish Thrills and Chills In Aqueduct Riding Playing in 1931 By Hesterberg

Two jockeys, Kurtsinger and Steffen, played important parts in the racing at Aqueduct yesterday. Their riding furnished thrills and chills. Kurtsinger won two races and should have made the total three. Steffen should have won at least one race, if not two, but was beaten in both.
