A. F. Goodwin's Land Boy Easy Winner of Gold Cup 'Chase at Rye

Riding of J. V. H. Davis Gives Stellar Jumper Third Successive Win

Rye, N. Y., Oct. 4-A cool crisp October afternoon furnished steeplechase enthusiasts with an ideal closing of the 1930 Hunts season at Bowman Park here today. The setting leg when tackled in the third period, R was typically English and a bit of the color of the days that and in the fourth period Highfield are past was added when John Wickshire and his tallyho received a broken shoulder in atparty drove up with a flourish.

The Gold Cup Steeplechase, the feature of the meeting, was given a dramatic touch by the last-minute arrival of Bill Street by airplane to pilot Mrs. Durant's entry, Falmouth. But it might have been any one of the numerous gentlemen

Pine Valley Golf Club, Pine Valley, N. J., Oct. 4-The strongest team the Metropolitan District ever put into the field swept through to an unusually easy victory here today in the Lesley Cup matches. The point totals were Metropolitan, 671/2; Pennsylvania, 521/2; Canada, 25, and Massachusetts, 35. A clean sweep in the complete 30 matches, an almost impossible task, would have netted 90 points.

Boro Hall Held To Even Score By Greenport

(Special to the Eagle.) Greenpoint, L. I., Oct. 4-Borough Hall Academy sayed itself from defeat here today by a brilliant rally in the last 15 seconds of play to gain a 7-to-7 tie with Greenport High School. Miller went over and Zurlo added the point with a run. Racing against time in mid-field,

Borough Hall opened up a forward passing attack. Brennan threw a 15-yard forward to Miller, who fell it to the 2-yard line, whence Miller carried it across. Feldler scored Greenport's touchbrilliant 35-yard run behind splendid bragon Fly, Daniel Gale. 4:19:16 brilliant 35-yard run behind splendid bragon Fly, Daniel Gale. 4:21:18 Fluts, Gordon Thomson. 4:24:00 Flirt, Ted Prime. 4:24:04 Walmsrie, Jent Oale. 4:35:58 retirement evidently weakened the Breenport, backfield. Itch Victorious in Hutington Races Huntington, N. Y., Oct. 4—By winning today's race with a margin of over two minutes, the Itch, sailed by Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Chute and their son, Richard S., clinched the championship of the Suicide Class of the Huntington yacht com-

The Itch has already won both of the two previous races in the title series. Today's event brought the yachting season of the Huntington Yacht Club to a close. The final race today was run over a trangular course in Huntington Bay of apas he was about to receive it. But proximately five miles in length. The it was so well directed that it landed race started in a strong north wind in his arms. Line plunges brought and with a sea which kept the entries down to seven,
