

Gar Wood Dreams of Bringing Motor Boat Classic to Metropolitan District

Believes That Kaye Don Has Still Something to Learn About Racing

Gar Wood sat in a corner suite at the Biltmore yesterday, the target for a million questions aimed by some of the very men who had not six months past dragged him across the headlines in one-inch type that must have seared his very soul.

Snowy of hair and ruddy of face, he was a study in contrasts; the wintry blasts that rattled the window behind him, the atmosphere within that fairly burned with pointed questions, like a man on the witness stand.

Many Championships In Long Island's List Of Golf Tournaments

Just to show you how close we are to golf season let us point out that there's but one "Winter tournament" left, and that the North and South at Pinehurst where Wiffy Cox is to defend his title.

CHERRY VALLEY AGAIN IN THE LIMELIGHT

Interesting, too, is the appearance of the Long Island women's championship on the Cherry Valley schedule. With the rise of Miss Helen Hicks, the Long Island women's championship has gained in interest.

Mills and Nertney Are Keen Rivals for the Turf Riding Honors

Is this to be an M. and N. season on the turf—Hall Mills and Willie Nertney? They loom large on the racing horizon as the most promising of our jockeys, or as they are still entitled to be called, apprentice riders.

BEST JOCKEYS SPARE THE WHIP

The same thing applied to Nertney in the Fall of last year, when he began riding winners and each one lessened his value to J. H. (Bud) Stetler, who had him under contract, that astute horseman began limiting his mounts to his own horses and those of his employer, the Sagamore Stable.
