Frank Strafaci, too, is working with Bill and if we know Kerwick and Frank as well as we think, the first Bill Richardson Memorial tournament to be held next season will be something that al meeting of the Long Island will make Bill get off one of those sly smiles for his mates up in golfing Valhalla.

Kerwick and Strafaci aren't just talking, they have actually planned the event which should turn out to be one of the most important fixtures of the 1948 campaign . . . The pair seems to feel that the competition should be made up of a foursomes invitation, with outstanding players from other sections of the country asked to join in memorializing the name of the famed Port er forgot his experiences as coxswain of a Wisconsin crew . . . Of course, foursomes play isn't too popular in this country for several reasons, the most important of which is that everybody wants to play every shot for 18 . . . Another objection is
