

PENN'S TEAM LEADS IN LESLEY CUP GOLF

Special to The New York Times.

CLEMENTON, N. J., Sept. 29
—Pennsylvania scored 24 points in ten singles matches today to lead the annual golf competition for the Lesley Cup at the Pine Valley Golf Club.

New York Metropolitan was next with 15 points. Massachusetts followed with 11½ and Providence of Quebec, the defender, had 9½. Scotch four-somes will be played tomorrow morning, followed by the concluding singles in the afternoon.

THE POINT SCORES

Pennsylvania (24)—William Hyndman, 2; Thomas Jamison, 0; Frank Souchak, 3; Fred Paine, 3; Mathew Scammell, 3; Jack Mahaffey, 2½; Philip Strubing, 2½; Guy Bafes, 3; Fred Brand, 3; Harry Walters 2.

New York Metropolitan (15)—Robert Gardner, 3; Wilson Barnes, 3; Kenne Gordon, 2; S. Stott, 0; James Hand, 2; Bertram Kohlmann, 1; Jarvis Hicks, 2; Percival Furber, 1; Edwin Hoyt, 0; Isaac Grainger, 1.

Massachusetts (11½)—William Harding, 1; Leon Bishop, 1½; Kenneth Corcoran, 1; Charles Pyle, 1½; James Batchelder Jr., 0; Frank Sillman, 0; John Hawkins, 1½; Arthur Rice Jr., 0; Henry Wischusen, 2; Stanton Deland Jr., 3.

Quebec (9½)—Gordon Taylor, 0; Dr. Joseph Shipley, 1½; J. G. Fitzpatrick, 0; R. A. Hall, 1½; Adjutor Dussault, 1; F. M. Pope, 2½; Raymond Getliffe, 0; Gordon McAthey, 2; Dr. J. P. Germain, 1; Guy Rolland, 0.