The competition for the Griscom Cup, held June 8-10, 1921, at the Country Club, Brookline, was won by the New England delegation. It was a tight squeeze for them in both of their matches against the New York district and the Philadelphia district. In each contest the score was 8-7.

The New York team defeated Philadelphia in the first engagement by 9 to 6. The Quakers were strong in the upper end of the team, but New York came strong at the finish. Mrs. Vanderbeck, Miss Mildred Caverly, and Mrs. G. H. Stetson each winning her match. Mrs. Caleb Fox and Mrs. Alec Smith were beaten. Mrs. Vanderbeck defeated Mrs. W. A. Gavin on the home green with an 87.

In the Philadelphia-Boston games, the upper half of the Quaker team performed brilliantly, the first five players winning, including Mrs. Vanderbeck, Miss Caverly, Mrs. Stetson, Mrs. Fox and Mrs. Smith. But the lower half of the Boston team played well and worked out a victory for the team.

In the final clash between New York and Boston the issue was close at all times. Mrs. Gavin defeated Miss Osgood, but Miss Collett downed Mrs. Jackson. Miss Georgianna Bishop won from Miss Gordon, and Miss Daisy Airey defeated Mrs. E. W. Daley.
